

City of Bloomington presents: Blooming Neighborhoods neighborhood awards celebration

2010 Awards Application Information

Bloomington's Neighborhood Associations have been nurturing and growing wonderful ideas and projects. Now it is time to recognize those special achievements. The Blooming Neighborhood Awards recognize the efforts and reward the accomplishments of organized neighborhood groups in Bloomington.

There are three award categories:

- Mayor's Excellence Award
- City Council Neighborhood Enhancement Award
- HAND Neighbor of the Year Award

Who may apply for an award?

Neighborhood groups registered with the City of Bloomington Housing and Neighborhood Development Department. Registration is simply filling out a form with basic information and submitting the by-laws of the organization. Neighborhoods may only submit one application per category, with a two category limit.

How are the winners selected? What are the awards?

Applications received by the deadline of noon on Friday, April 23, 2010 are evaluated by representatives from each of the three award categories. Presentation of the awards will be at the Farmers' Market on Saturday, June 5, 2010. Award winners will receive $100 check made payable to their perspective Neighborhood Association.

Use the space provided on page # 3 to summarize your neighborhood or individual's achievement and tell us how it was accomplished. Here are questions that need to be addressed as you write your application:

Why does your individual, project or achievement deserve an award?

How was the project conducted (the process can be as critical as the outcome)?

What did the neighborhood or individual accomplish?

Who benefited from your project or individual's contribution?

Did the neighborhood or individual partner with another organization to conduct the project?

How was the project paid for?

How many people worked on the project?

How many hours did the neighborhood or individual spend working on the project?

Was the achievement a one-time success, or is it a continuing effort?

If the project is going to continue, how will it be kept going?

Neighborhood Associations may apply for two awards. You must submit a separate application for each award.
( Check the box of the award you are submitting with this application.)
